

Advanced School of Music and Dance

SOLFEGGIO & MUSIC THEORY CLASSES

Based on many studies - learning music increases IQ. In order to play music, you need a musical ear. When you cannot imagine a sound first, you will actually not be able to sing or play an instrument. The lessons specifically oriented on ear training, sight-reading, learning all about music theory and discovering how to read and write music.

January 5, 2010 – April 13, 2011

Wednesdays - 15 lessons

Level - 2a	5.30-6.30 p.m.	Cost: $140.00
Level - 2b	7.00-8.00 p.m.	Cost: $140.00

About the Teacher:

Dmitriy Varelas holds 2 Master degrees in Performing Arts and Composition from State Conservatory, Tashkent, Russia and The Sibelius Academy, Helsinki, Finland.

Dmitriy is Prize-winner of the International Composer's competition Tango-Café 2009 in Stuttgart (Germany) and International competition D. D. Shostakovich in Paris (France).

Dmitriy has several Published books and CD's. His professionalism, 10 years of teaching experience and creativity will help children to understand and love music.

(416) 410 4397
info@privatemusiclessons.ca
www.privatemusiclessons.ca

*Peanut Plaza
3030 Don Mills Road,
(Between Finch & Sheppard)*